ICM ICM48100	1:48	Mistel 1 WWII German Composite Aircraft. The Mistel Strike Aircraft Complex was a high-powered guided attack aircraft. The combat component of the complex was the Ju 88 bomber, which was fitted with a large warhead with an explosive material weighing between 1,800 and 2,000 kg instead of a cockpit. The aircraft thus becomes a kind of giant bomb. The nose of the fuselage was equipped with a long tip with a detonator to create a...	Aircraft kits (injection)	Catalogue	£44.85	20+
ICM ICM48304	1:48	North-American/Rockwell OV-10A Bronco US Navy. OV-10A Bronco aircraft proved themselves well during the Vietnam War. They were used as light attack aircraft for direct support of troops and as target aircraft. They were distinguished by good maneuverability, good survivability and a rather large combat load. It should also be noted the short time in which they managed to appear above the set goals. The OV-10A Bronco was part o...	Aircraft kits (injection)	Catalogue	£29.85	20+
